Aaron Tippin Brings Country Music to the Middle East

Country singer Aaron Tippin boosted troop morale in Southwest Asia.

Washington, D.C. (December 1, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent Aaron Tippin to meet, greet and perform for the troops stationed in the Middle East. The singer signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended his gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Tippin is a force of nature, a man whose passion for music fuels an array of other vigorous enthusiasms. Apart from writing and recording songs and wowing crowds with his live appearances, Tippin is also a pilot, farmer, winemaker, outdoorsman, competitive bodybuilder and devoted family man. He even runs his own record label. It's no surprise that people in the music industry regard this tireless South Carolinian as the "Hillbilly Hercules." Tippin's honest lyrics and impassioned vocals have built a large and devoted audience. In keeping with his take-charge attitude, Tippin established NIPPIT Records in 2005 and, in 2008, the label partnered with Cracker Barrel for the release of He Believed. During the months ahead, Tippin and his band will be roaring along America's vast highway grid, meeting truckers and singing their praises to a new generation of country music fans.
