Along Those Lines: Unprocessed and Unapologetic

The rock band journeyed to Southwest Asia to put on a show for the troops.

Washington, D.C. (April 15, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent Along Those Lines to entertain the troops stationed in the Pacific. The band performed their original songs, and some crowd favorites, signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Along Those Lines has been featured at the Millenium Music Conference, Launch Music Conference and played on the Main Stage at Shamrock Fest at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C. The band has also shared a stage with bands like Train, The Roots, Steven Kellogg and the Sixers.

Details:

- The band is currently promoting the impending release of their new album Somewhere In Between.
