CoverDogs Pay Homage to the Troops & Rock ‘N’ Roll Tradition

The cover band brought classic rock hits to life for the troops in Kosovo and Germany.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (January 11, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent the cover band CoverDogs to play for the troops in Kosovo and Germany at the start of the New Year. The band mates, Tony, Mark, Fab and Jay, brought energy and excitement to the stage as they performed everyone’s favorite classic and contemporary rock songs. The band also signed autographs, posed for photos and extended their appreciation to America’s men and women in uniform.

CoverDogs have been together for more than 20 years, performing at Las Vegas casinos such as Mandalay Bay, Luxor and New York, New York and in concerts such as the Utahpalooza Festival and the New Years Eve Gala at the New Sanno Hotel in Tokyo.

Details:

- CoverDogs have performed at numerous US bases around the world for all branches of the military.

Quotes:

Attributed to Mark J. Smith:

We couldn’t ask for a better audience than the men and women of the U.S. military. Everyone loves listening music and we love playing music, it’s the one thing that we’re able to give back to America’s servicemen and women – we’re not just entertaining them, we’re saying thank you.

Attributed to USAF Lt. Col. Kathleen Weatherspoon, Chief, Armed Forces Entertainment:

The idea of Armed Forced Entertainment is to bring a slice of home to the troops stationed all over the world and CoverDogs does exactly that. The band is extremely talented and they play the songs that we grew up with, songs that everyone knows and can sing along with and we hope they find the time to tour with us again.
