Darryl Worley Takes On Southwest Asia

Up and coming country singer Darryl Worley entertains U.S. troops stationed in the Middle East

Washington, D.C. (April 9, 2012) – Armed Forces Entertainment sends talented musician Darryl Worley to entertain our troops stationed abroad. The country singer will perform his original songs as well as some old favorites, sign autographs, pose for pictures and extend his gratitude to the servicemen and women.

Through five albums and 17 chart hits, Darryl Worley has produced one of the most impressive and wide-ranging catalogs in contemporary music. For 10 years he has been a mainstay of modern country, a distinctive singer and first-rate songwriter whose music has chronicled life, love and the world situation with equal facility. Worley has topped the charts with singles including I Miss My Friend, Have You Forgotten? and Awful, Beautiful Life, which accomplished the feat for one, two and an incredible seven weeks respectively. He hit the Top 20 with the first three singles from his impressive major-label debut, Hard Rain Don't Last – When You Need My Love, A Good Day to Run and Second Wind and followed with smashes like If Something Should Happen, I Just Came Back From A War and the iconic Tennessee River Run.
