High Noon at the Piano Bar

Dueling piano players duked it out for U.S. troops stationed in the Pacific.

Washington, D.C. (November 26, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent the comedic and musically talented piano players Chris Combs, Terry Conry and Johnny Stone to entertain the troops stationed in the Pacific. The musicians showcased their piano-playing skills in a battle of wit and musicality while they extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Combs is a lively and energetic performer that knows how to work a crowd. Performing a mix of today's top modern hits with well-known rock and pop standards from the last five decades. Conry has been a professional piano player for 21 years and has had the privilege to perform all over the world playing at Howl at the Moon Saloons. Dueling piano performers Combs and Conry had the audience in Alaska singing, clapping and dancing the night away. In Diego Garcia, Combs was joined by Stone, retired Military who has been a professional piano player for 30 years who has also had the privilege to perform all over the world playing at Howl at the Moon Saloons as well as Universal Studios.
