High Noon at the Piano Bar

Dueling piano players duke it out for U.S. troops stationed in the Pacific

Washington, D.C. (March 26, 2012) – Armed Forces Entertainment sends the comedic and musically-talented piano players Chris Combs, PJ Gartrell and Orin Sands to entertain U.S. troops stationed in Korea and Hawaii. The musicians will showcase their piano-playing skills in a battle of wit and musicality while extending their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Combs is a lively and energetic performer who knows how to work a crowd. Performing a mix of today's top modern hits along with well-known rock and pop standards from the last five decades. Gartrell is a former Marine who attended the Armed Forces School of Music in Norfolk, VA and has travelled the world playing music. Sands has had more than 25 years in the music industry and shared the stage with music icons such as James Brown, Cher and the Goo Goo Dolls.
