Fall Back Plan Takes on the Pacific

The alternative rock band performed for the U.S. troops stationed overseas.

Washington, D.C. (April 17, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent alternative rock band Fall Back Plan to entertain the servicemen and women stationed in the Pacific. The talented band put on a rockin' show, signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Fall Back Plan has been described as Gwen Stefani meets Foo Fighters and they recently recorded a debut album with Chelsey Studios in Baltimore, Maryland. The band was selected out of hundreds of bands to perform on the T.V. show Backstage with Barry Nolan in 2008 and has performed alongside bands such as Placebo, Train, Pat Monahan and The Click Five.
