The Sonic Landscape is in Full Bloom

LA band Good Girl Hank performed for the men and women stationed in Europe.

Washington, D.C. (June 21, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent the alt-pop band Good Girl Hank to entertain troops stationed in Europe. The band performed, signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to men and women in uniform.

Good Girl Hank has become a major draw on the downtown Los Angeles music scene, especially with the "creative-style" set. They have played a three-year residency at the popular downtown Los Angeles whiskey bar Seven Grand and regularly at downtown art galleries and other hot spots. Good Girl Hank recently performed on the main stage at the well-attended Lightning in a Bottle Festival.

Collectively, these young talents have performed and recorded with such artists as Snoop Dogg, Jason Mraz, DJ Quik, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Sly Stone, Parliament Funkadelic, George Clinton, Eek-A-Mouse, daKAH, Everlast, Michael Buble and Steve Miller.
