Life in the 210 mph Lane

National Hot Rod Association drivers visited U.S. troops in Germany.

Washington, D.C. (November 24, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent Dan Runte, Greg Anderson, Rickie Jones and Jason Line to meet and greet the men and women stationed in Europe. The National Hot Rod Association (NHRA) drivers signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Runte is a three-time MTRA Driver of the Year, the first driver to win award three times, a two-time Penda Points Series Champion and the winner of the inaugural MLMT Racing Championship in 2007. Anderson holds the single-season NHRA record for final round appearances at 19 and he set an all-time NHRA record for most wins in a season at 15, which he currently shares with Tony Schumacher. Jones scored the first final-round appearance of his NHRA Pro Stock career at the fall 2009 Vegas race and finished in the top ten in the 2009 NHRA Full Throttle Pro Stock championship standings. Line is the fourth driver in NHRA history to win three consecutive Gatornationals and he also scored five wins (Pomona, Gainesville, Norwalk, Sonoma and Memphis) in nine final rounds in 2009, a new single-season career-best for wins.
