Standup for America

The patriots of preposterous boosted troop morale in the Middle East.

Washington, D.C. (November 25, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent comedians Tommy Davidson and Dante Carter to entertain U.S. troops stationed in the Persian Gulf. The comics performed their hilarious stand-up, signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Davidson stars – along with 80 other star stand-ups – in I Am Comic, opposite Tim Allen, Lewis Black, Sarah Silverman, Carlos Mencia, Jeff Foxworthy and Kathy Griffin. The film, which premiered on Showtime, is one of Netflix's surefire hits enjoying a continual surge as a favorite with consumers. Davidson scored big with reviewers and audiences alike opposite Michael Jai White in the critically lauded spoof comedy, Black Dynamite (Sony Pictures), last year's big Sundance hit which is currently being adapted as a cartoon for Adult Swim. Carter's special talents range from creating hilarious, oddball characters to painting vivid story lines. Carter travels around the country entertaining the audiences of Def Comedy Jam and BET's Comic View.
