Stand Up and Holler

A diverse ensemble of entertainers boosted troop morale in the Pacific.

Washington, D.C. (July 7, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent an eclectic mix of entertainers to boost the morale of troops stationed in the Pacific. The Reel Darlins, NFL Cheerleaders and comedian Trey Elliot entertained the troops, signed autographs, posed for pictures and extended their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

The Reel Darlins are an array of women anglers with diverse personalities, knowledge and experience whose mission is to unite women who are passionate about the fishing and boating lifestyle. If you want to see what they do best, you can catch their entertaining, exciting and informative show either online or on TV coming “REEL” soon. The Arizona Cardinals, New England Patriots and Atlanta Falcons Cheerleaders are talented groups of young women who not only bring spirit to the football games, but do good work within their communities. Elliot is a young, up-and-coming comedian who brings laughter to any audience.
