The Sounds of Bluegrass Spread Through Southwest Asia

Three Day Threshold plays their rockabilly tunes for the troops in Southwest Asia

WASHINGTON, D.C. (February 1, 2011) – Armed Forces Entertainment sent Boston bluegrass band Three Day Threshold to perform for the troops stationed in Southwest Asia. Kier Byrnes, John Stump, PJ Aspesi, Evan Gavry and Jimmy Ryan signed autographs, posed for photos and extended their appreciation to America's servicemen and women.

Three Day Threshold has earned several accolades, including several Boston Music Awards, a few nods for Artist of the Year in Jam Music Magazine, and Best Live Band from The Noise. The band's songs have been featured in television shows such as FOX's Simple Life series and MTV's Real World and Road Rules. Three Day Threshold has also performed alongside popular bands like Social Distortion, Drive By Truckers, and Quiet Riot.

Details:

- Three Day Threshold has won several Boston Music Awards and Best Live Band from The Noise.
- The band is currently promoting their most recent album Straight Out of the Barrel.

Quotes:

Attributed to Kier Byrnes:

We are so humbled and honored by this opportunity and extremely grateful for a chance to give back to the troops who have done so much for our country.

Attributed to USAF Lt. Col. Kathleen Weatherspoon, Chief, Armed Forces Entertainment:

The band members of Three Day Threshold were excited and to travel to the Middle East to entertain the troops and we were lucky to have them. They were truly proud to be there and it showed in their fantastic performance.
