The Ultimate Fighting Tour

UFC fighters head overseas to meet and greet troops in the Middle East

Washington, D.C. (April 18, 2012) – Armed Forces Entertainment sends Mike Swick, Nick Ring and Ben Baxter to meet and greet U.S. troops stationed in Southwest Asia. The UFC fighters will sign autographs, pose for pictures and extend their gratitude to the men and women in uniform.

Swick is one of the premier welterweight mixed martial artists of the world and has appeared on Spike TV's The Ultimate Fighter. Also, he has his own web show on UFC.com, Real Quick with Mike Swick, and gives various interviews where his self-effacing humor has made him one of the most in-demand athletes in mixed martial arts.

Ring is a Canadian mixed martial artists who competes in the middleweight division. He has been a professional competitor since 2002 and has most notably fought in the Bellator Fighting Championships and appeared on the 11th season of The Ultimate Fighter.

Baxter has more than 10 years of martial arts experience and currently holds a black belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu. He is also a three-time world medalist, a four-time Pan American medalist and a Las Vegas Open medalist with a 1-0 professional MMA record.
